Form-Based Codes

Form-Based Codes foster predictable built results and a high-quality “Public Realm” by using relationships of physical form (rather than separation of uses) as the organizing principle for the Code.

Form-Based Codes are founded upon the exercise of the “police power”;

(Public Safety, Public Health & General Welfare of the Community.)

“I observed that the vitals of the village were the grocery, the barroom, the post-office, and the bank;...and the houses were so arranged as to make the most of mankind, in lanes and fronting one another, so that every traveler had to run the gauntlet, and every man, woman, and child might get a lick at him.”

Henry David Thoreau
Walden 1845, The Village

Form-Based Codes

Are drafted to achieve a prescriptive community-based vision built on time-tested forms of traditional New England town centers.

“Individual buildings are often conceived as solely private (isolated) , self-referential objects incapable of generating the public realm”

“Conversely, our public regulation system of zoning that controls the growth of (our towns) has become overly verbal and complicated and incapable of accurately guiding physical form, especially because everything is negotiable.”

“Zoning conflates issues of use, density and form to such an extent that it has spawned the unpredictability and visual chaos (increasingly) typical of (our New England towns).”

“Simplify,
Simplify,
Simplify”

Henry David Thoreau

Walden, 1845

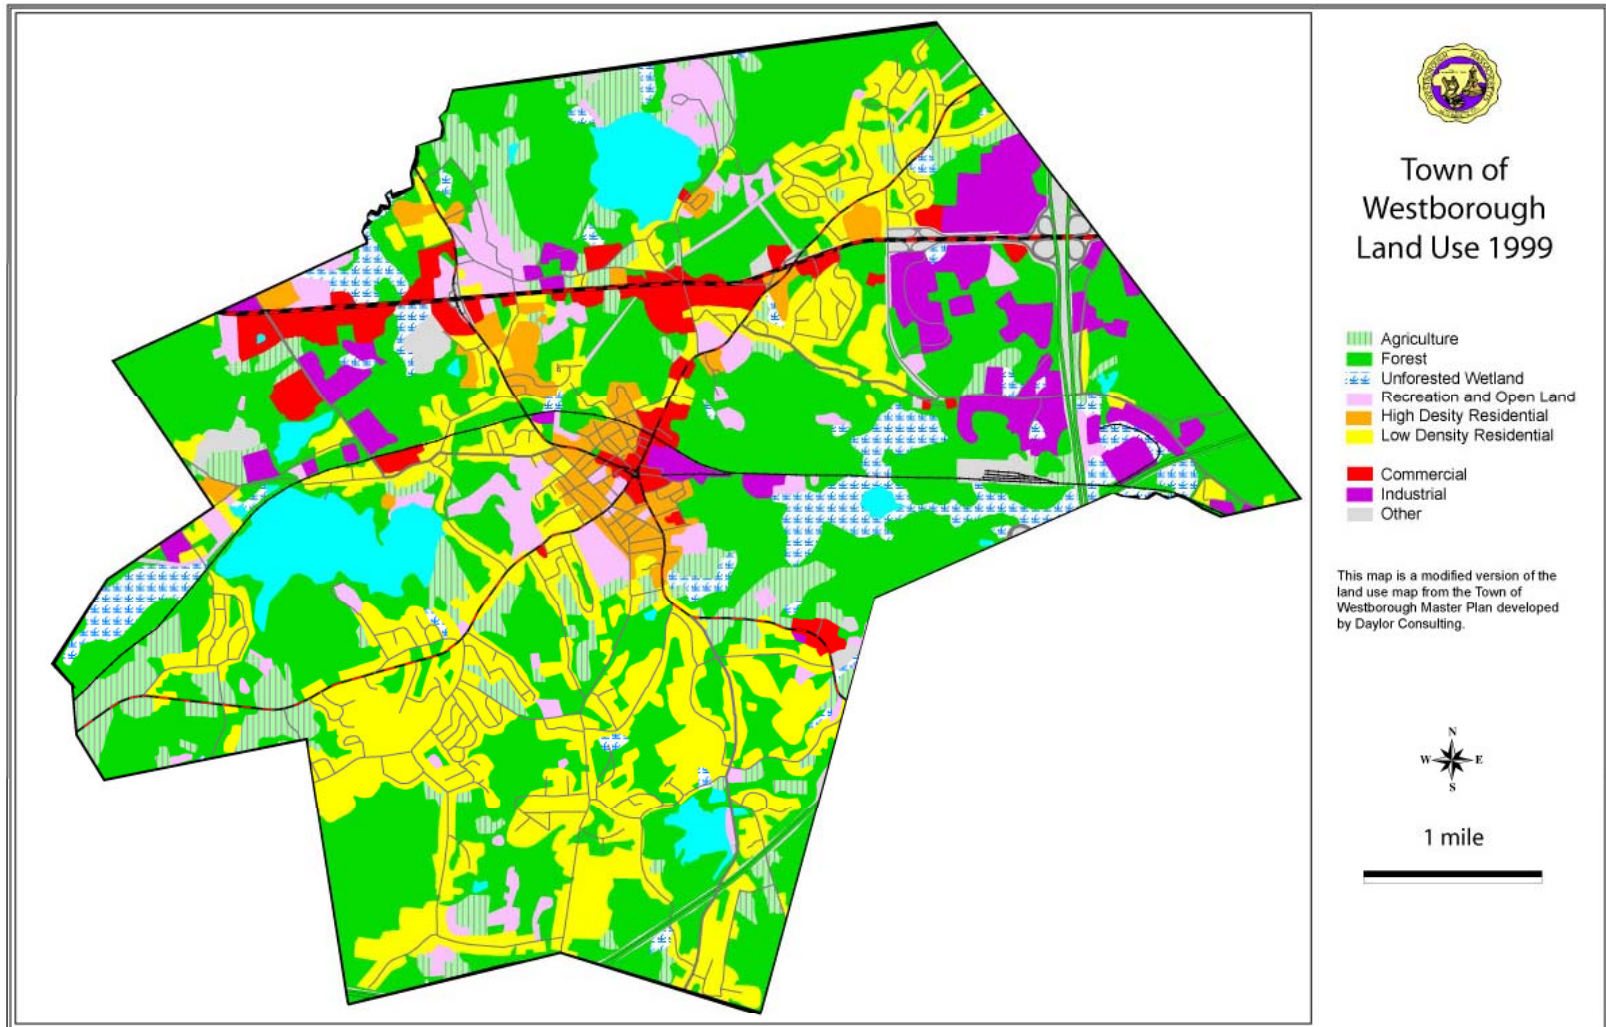

A functional disconnection often exists between our New England town Master Plan “visions” & our use-based Zoning Regulations and/or our conventional Site Plan Review process.

What is the predictable built outcome of traditional New England “Character”?

The Regulating Plan is the regulatory foundation of the contextual form.

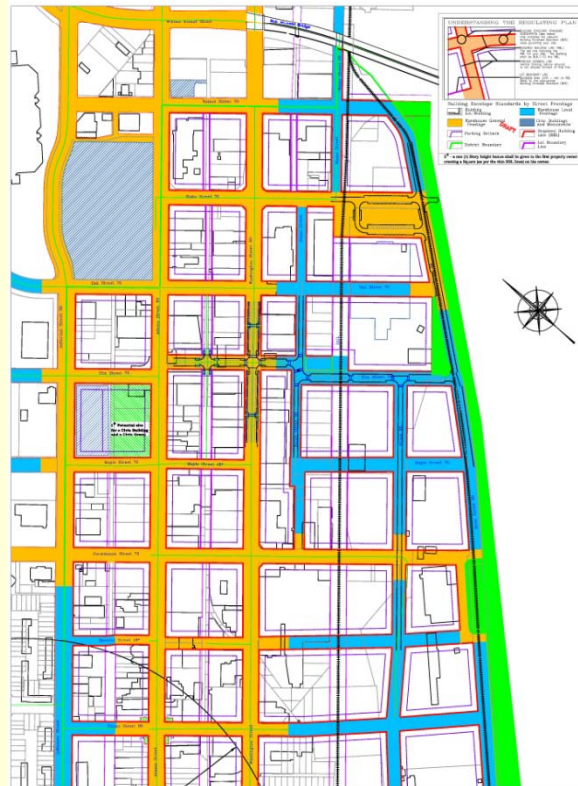

The Regulating Plan is, in a practical sense, a comprehensive site plan (flexibly designed) for the unified district and/or community.

De-escalation of unpredictability, contention, risk to investment, process costs, volatility of negotiations, and seemingly un-navigable complexity.

The “Required Build-To-Line”

Highly illustrative, visual, graphic in its technical presentation.

Concise, user-friendly, perhaps no “land-use lawyers” necessary in order to make practical sense of the text-based litigious nuances of the conventional development project application & review process.

Clear the clutter; (overlays, guidelines, special districts, performance standards, interpretations, appropriateness, etc.)

The Methods of Deployment

Where Does the Code Live?

- Mandatory Code

(freestanding form-based code).

- Mandatory Code

(integrated into existing code).

- Optional (Parallel) Code

- Floating Zone Code

The Organizing Principles

- Street-Type Codes
- Frontage Type-Based Codes
- Building Type-Based Codes
- Transect-Based Codes
- Modified Transect-Based Codes

Code Elements (Standard):

- Illustrative Plan
- Regulating Plan
- Streetscape Standards
- Development Form Standards
- Administration
- Definitions

- Additional Elements:
- Architectural Standards
- Signage Standards

Development Standards

- Building Height
- Building Siting or Placement
- Building Envelope Standards
- Location of Parking
- Uses
